Plantation High School

"Reflections 88"

IT'S A

A K E!

Roll Film

Each school year at Plantation High is very similiar to making a movie. The students are the actors, the teachers are the directors, and the administrators are the producers. The set is the classroom and P.H.S. is the sound stage for our production.

At the beginning of the year the students are presented with a script. Some Plantation High students seek stardom while others are happier as supporting actors, or extras, and still others are thrilled to be stuntmen or women. There will be those who perform as stagehands or musicians;

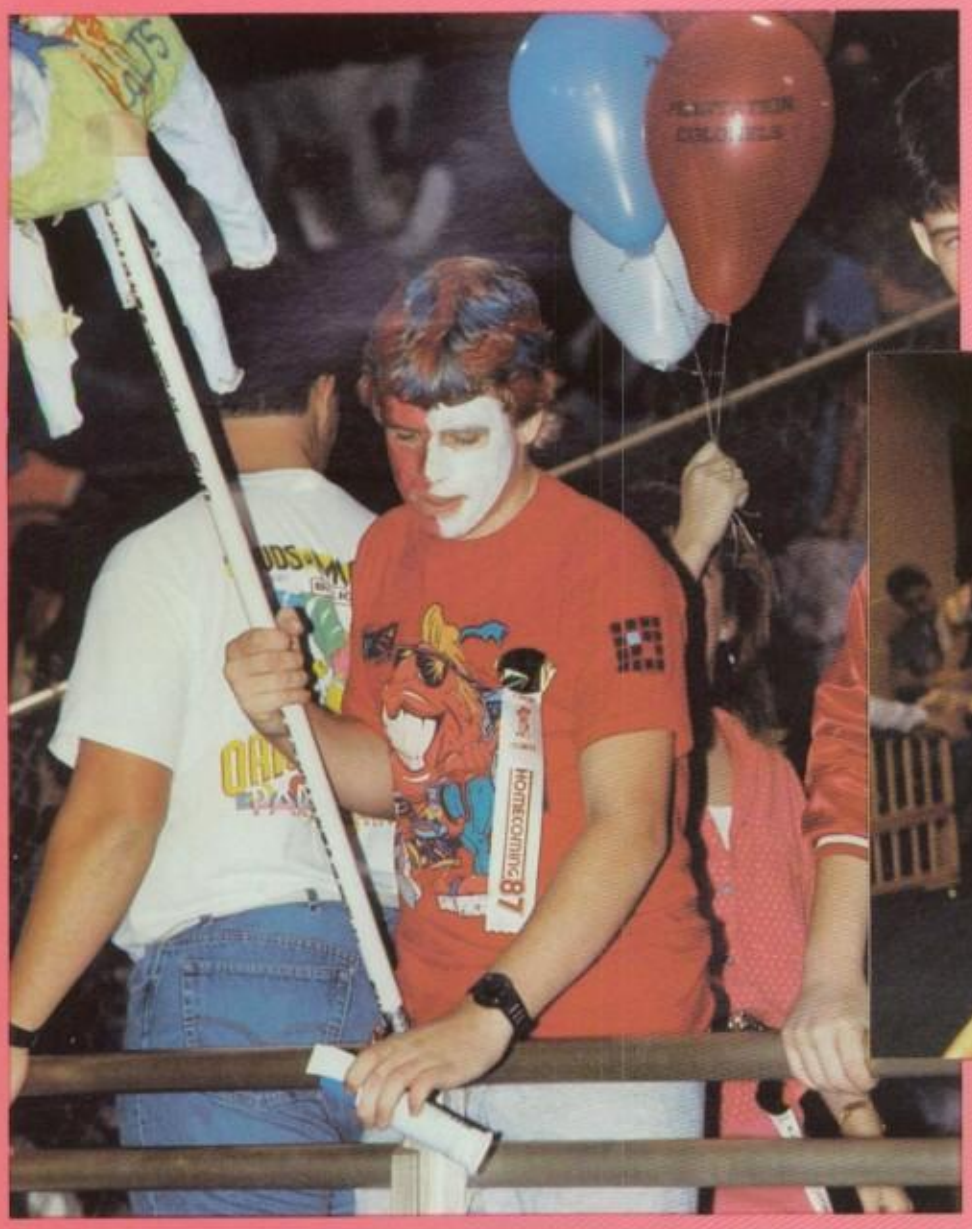
"Alice in Wonderland" naps in the guidance department!

"ALIEN fuzzies" invade Plantation High!



Gregg Austin preparing to bop an unsuspecting freshman in the head.

Homecoming puts a smile on everyone's face.

Madonna strikes up a smile, but who's that other girl?

Malarka and Toni have many helmet repair duties during a hard-hitting game.

Supporting Roles

there are the singers, dancers, comedians, heros, heroines and yes, even villians.

Seniors, now veteran actors, know this will be their last year at P.H.S. "studios". When this year's "movie" is completed they will receive the much sought after and coveted "DIPLOMA", their reward for four years of performances.

The Juniors are seasoned actors, looking forward to becoming veteran actors themselves. Here at Plantation High School they will receive th award, the "CLASS RING" during this year . . . it is an excitin· ıe for the Juniors!

Donna Royes falls asleep while working on her grammar lesson.

On the Set

No longer beginners, the Sophomores anxiously await their opportunity to make a name for themselves in a leading role, yet they are willing to take a supporting role for now.

This year's "Promising Newcomers", the freshmen, enter the world of high school with high hopes and expectations. They wait and watch from the wings, learning their roles, ready to take the limelight.

Four very cool dudes chillin' on hat, tie, and shades day.

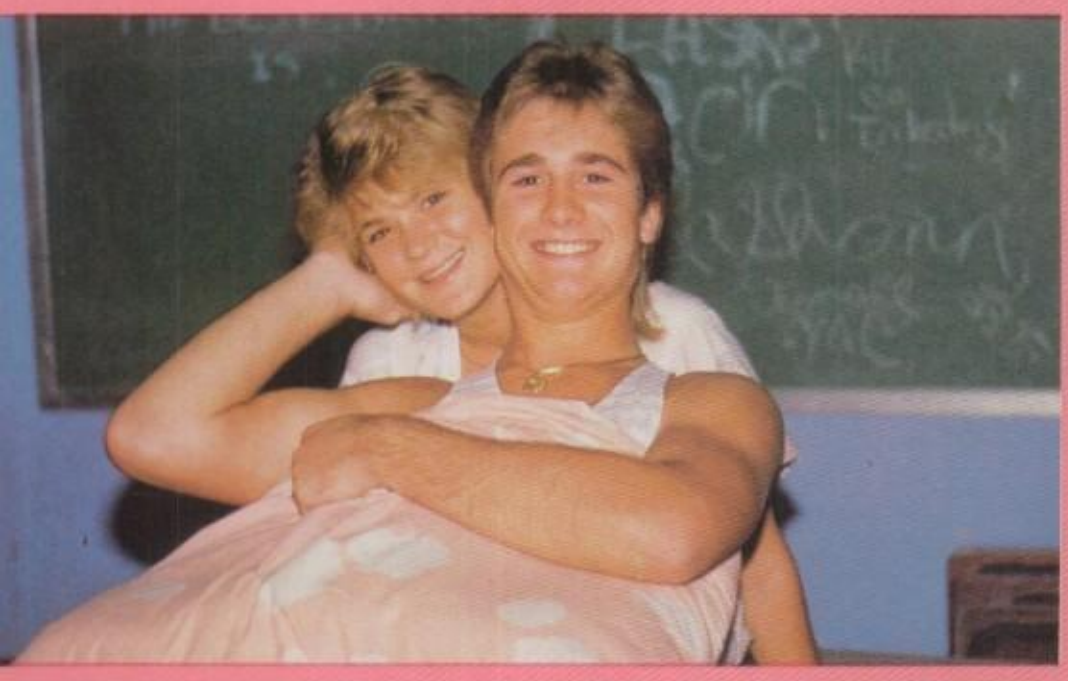
Helene Kon practices her vollyball techniques in the middle of the cafeteria.

P.H.S. cheerleaders practice playing Twister.

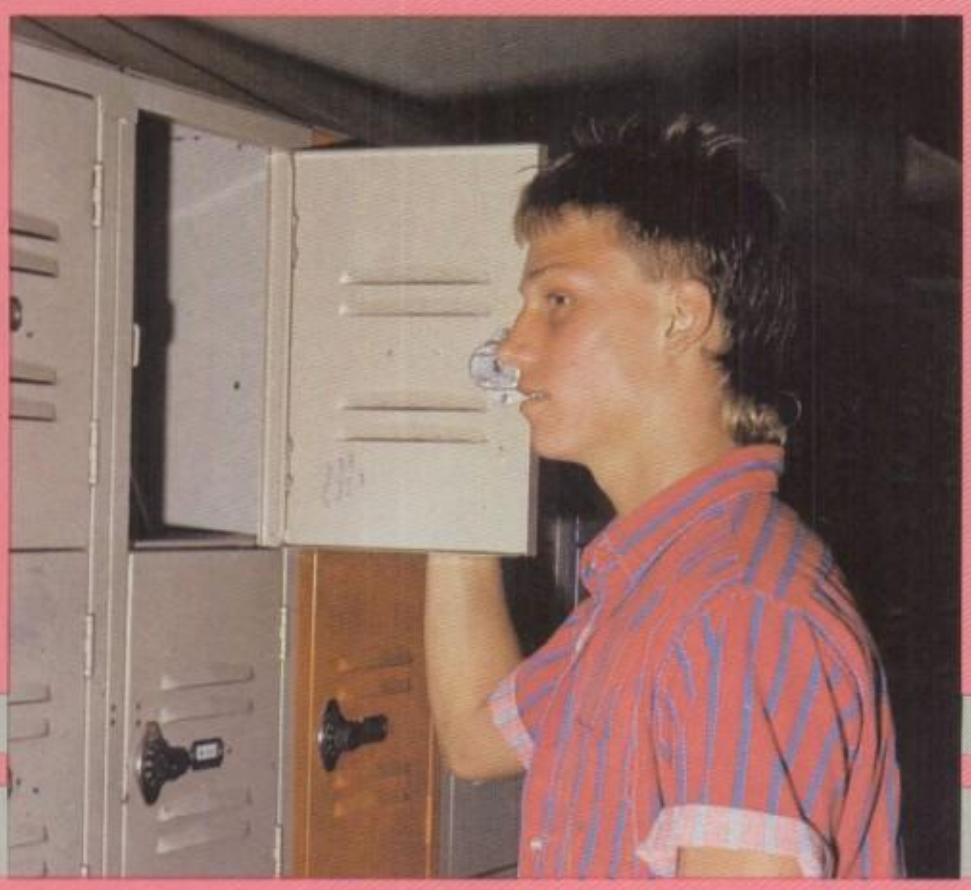
Julie Weidner, Kristie Owen, and Gwen Svoboda CHEER! the Colonels on.

Hardy Peters is caught prowling on a roof top!

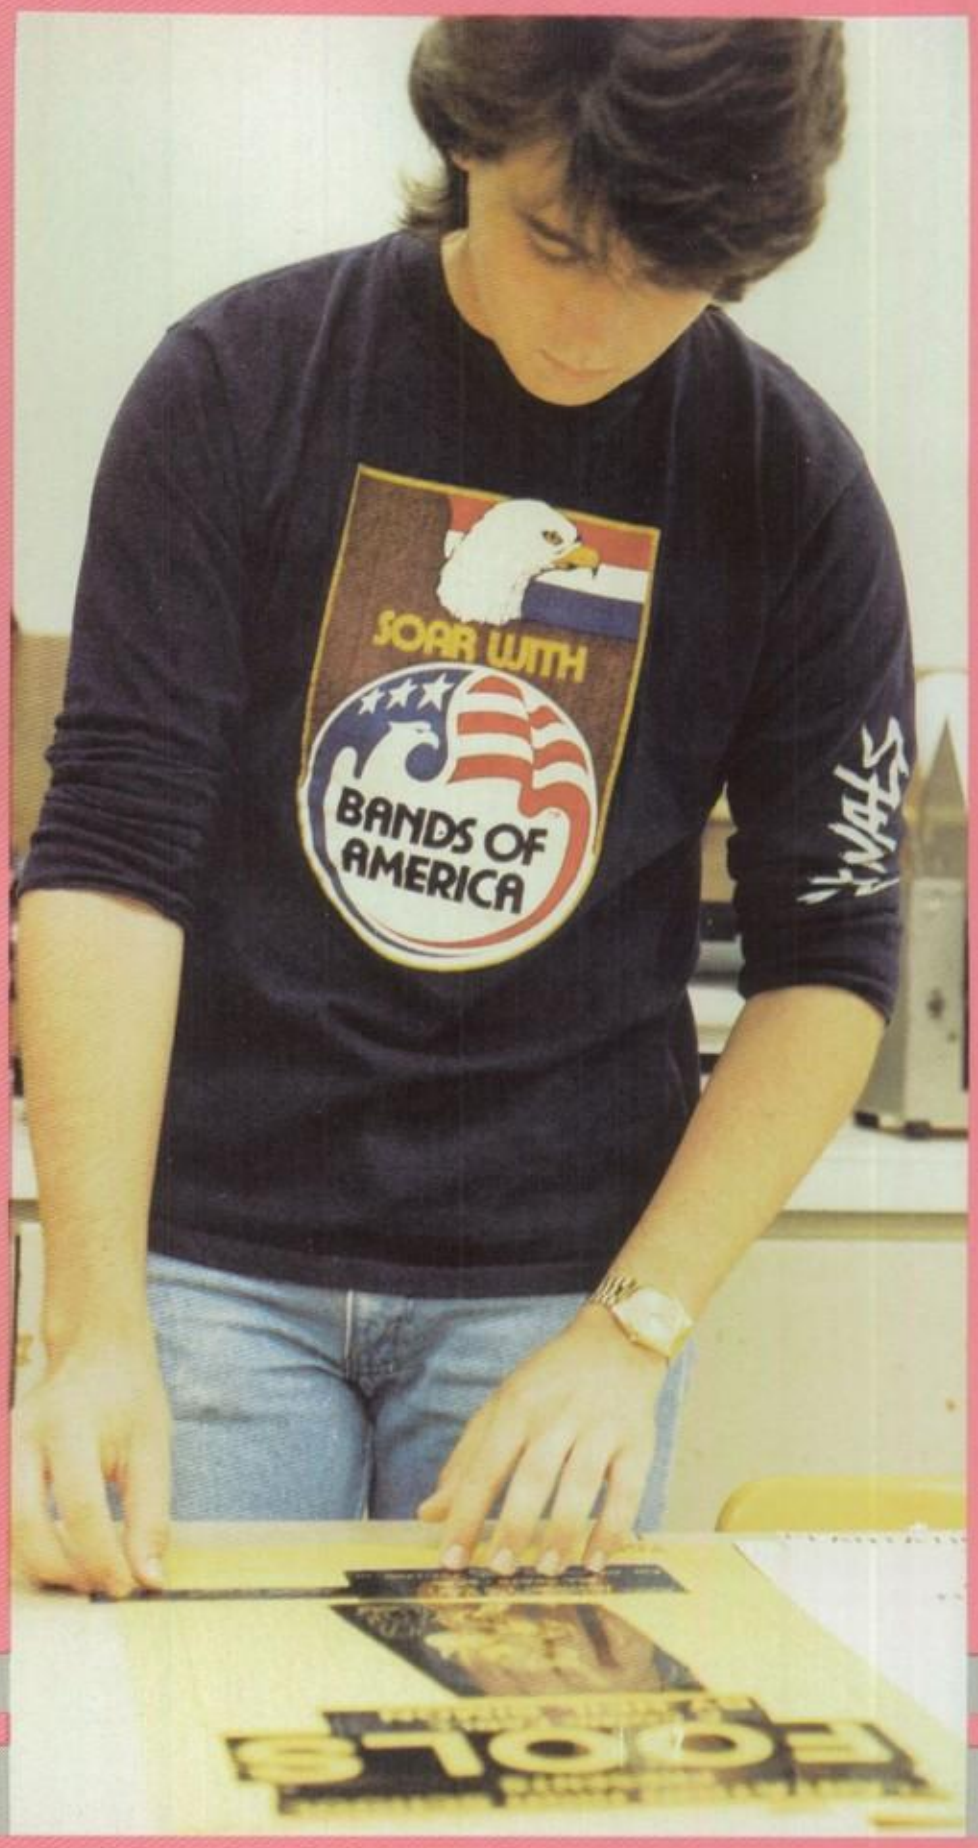
Mercedes Fortich is viciously attacked by an "ALIEN fuzzie"!!



Brad Harner and Debbie Potter get "chummy".



James Wortman wonders, "What happened to all my books?"

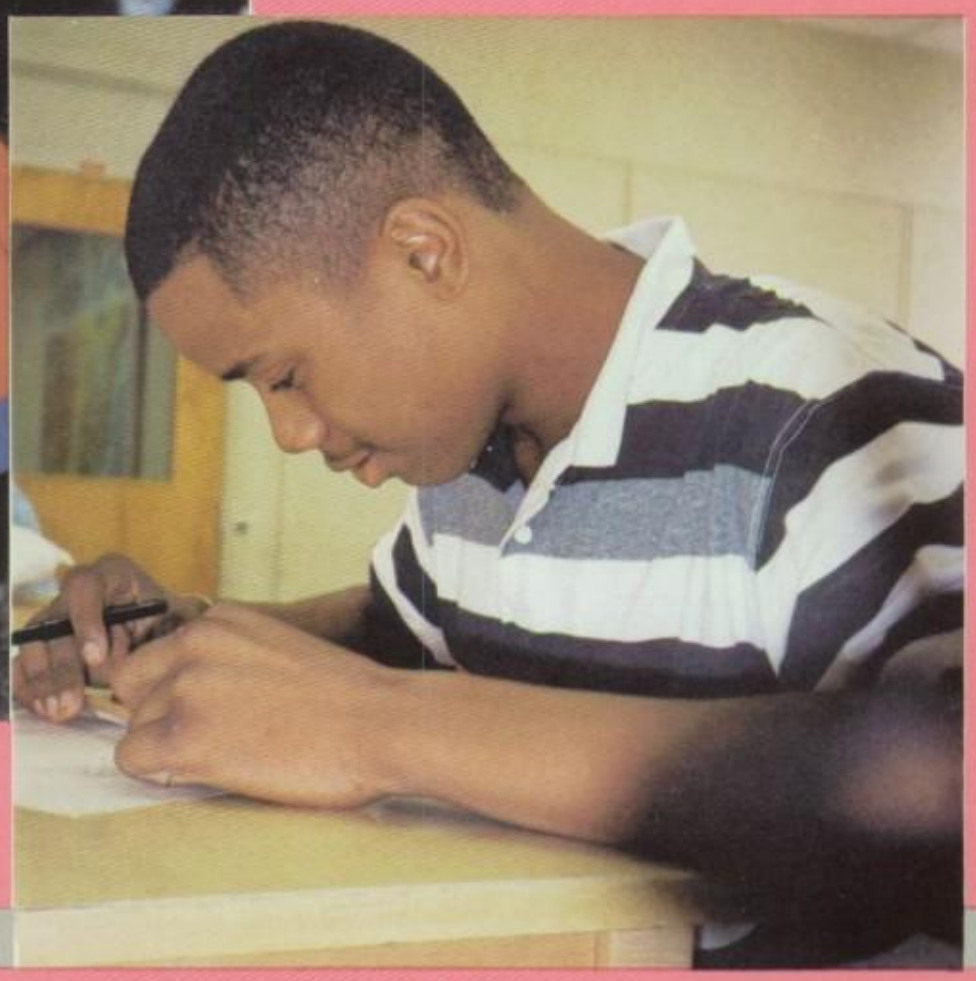


Jimmy Talton prepares the masterpiece which advertised "Fools".

The Lights Go Down

In the pages that follow we have provided an opportunity for our actors, directors and producers to see themselves as others see them. This book will remind all of us of the battles we fought, some we won, some we lost. It will help us recall the triumphs and the tragedies, the times when we laughed, and the times when we cried. We can recall the romance and happy endings. The comedians will make us happy again and we will be proud of our "stars and serious actors". Long after this year is a "wrap" we can "flashback" just by opening the pages of REFLECTIONS, 1987-88.

Stefane Urow gets into her cheer!



James Wallace takes a . . . closer . . . look!

Proud Colonels know that our team is number one.

Homecoming

The varsity fighting Colonels went into the Homecoming game against Coral Springs with a record of 4-4. Excited fans poured into the stadium well before the opening kick-off. Dressed in red and white to show their spirit, the fans got psyched for the clash of The Colts and The Colonels. Kick-off!! The game began. The Colonels hung tough well into second quarter. The band performed the Homecoming theme song during the half-time show as the court, consisting of ten senior girls, with their escorts, paraded across the field. Then we were treated to spectacular fireworks blazing across the sky. As the second half got under way the scoreboard displayed an ominous 14-7 in favor of the Colts, but the Colonels returned determine to overcome the odds. During second half Sandy Nelson had a 99 yard kick-off return, a new school record. Despite some mighty efforts of the Colonels, the score remained unchanged, 19-14, in favor of the Colts. Supportive fans applauded the valiant Colonels. Although we lost the game to Coral Springs, Homecoming Week '87 was certainly a success!

Homecoming: Plantation on parade

Homecoming parade occurred on November 13th. Floats from different classes, clubs and some sports activity groups wound their way along the parade route, running from 16th Street to Mirror Lakes Elementary School and back again to PHS. People riding on the floats threw candy, gum, and fortune cookies to the spectators along the route. Of course, there were the traditional rolls of toilet paper thrown also. The main idea of the parade was to arouse school spirit for the Homecoming game against Coral Springs High's Colts, which was scheduled later in the day. It was evident that all who participated in the parade and those who watched it had a great time.

The parade "winner" chorus float lets the "good times roll"!

Robert Selvaggi asks Kurt Varricchio "Wanna hit the beach"?

Burning up the stage

Skit Night is a tradition during Homecoming week at PHS, and has proven to be a fun-filled event in the past. This year's Skit Night, held on November 12, was no exception. Many of the clubs, organizations and classes performed skits related to the homecoming theme, "Let the Good Times Roll". At the conclusion of the performances winners were announced; the seniors won first place, with the Drama Club taking second, and Octettes winning third place. Again, Skit Night proved to be a resounding success!

On November 16th, the Key Club sponsored the "school spirit" bonfire. The annual game against South Plantation is usually preceded by a bonfire and this year's "pyramid of wood" had a "Paladin" hanging from the side. As the bonfire was lit, Coach Walker introduced the senior football players and the senior cheerleaders and they began cheering, with the crowd joining in. When the "Paladin" began to burn, the yelling was tremendous! By this time the fire was very large, and everyone was filled with "spirit". As the evening progressed the onlookers talked, joked, watched the fire and generally enjoyed themselves. It was obvious that the bonfire was a huge success!

Lunch

It was 12 o'clock, noon, lunch time! There was a mad dash out the door to the car, then to the nearest fast food restaurant; it was finally time to stop those hunger pains! For those who didn't have a car, didn't drive yet, or had friends who did, it was off to the cafeteria or the new arc to chow down . . . this is how you spelt R-e-l-i-e-f at PHS! This year our new principal, Mr. Milano, had an arc built for students to sit in while they ate lunch or just chatted with friends and relaxed. Lunch time was an opportunity for everyone, student and teacher alike to break away and renew those brain cells, getting ready to give learning and teaching another try. Some people did this by standing outside near their cars, listening to music, others just sat back and watched the world go by. No matter how it was done, the student's were careful to keep campus clean . . . and open!

"I'll give you half a burger for your shake." says Chad to Joe.

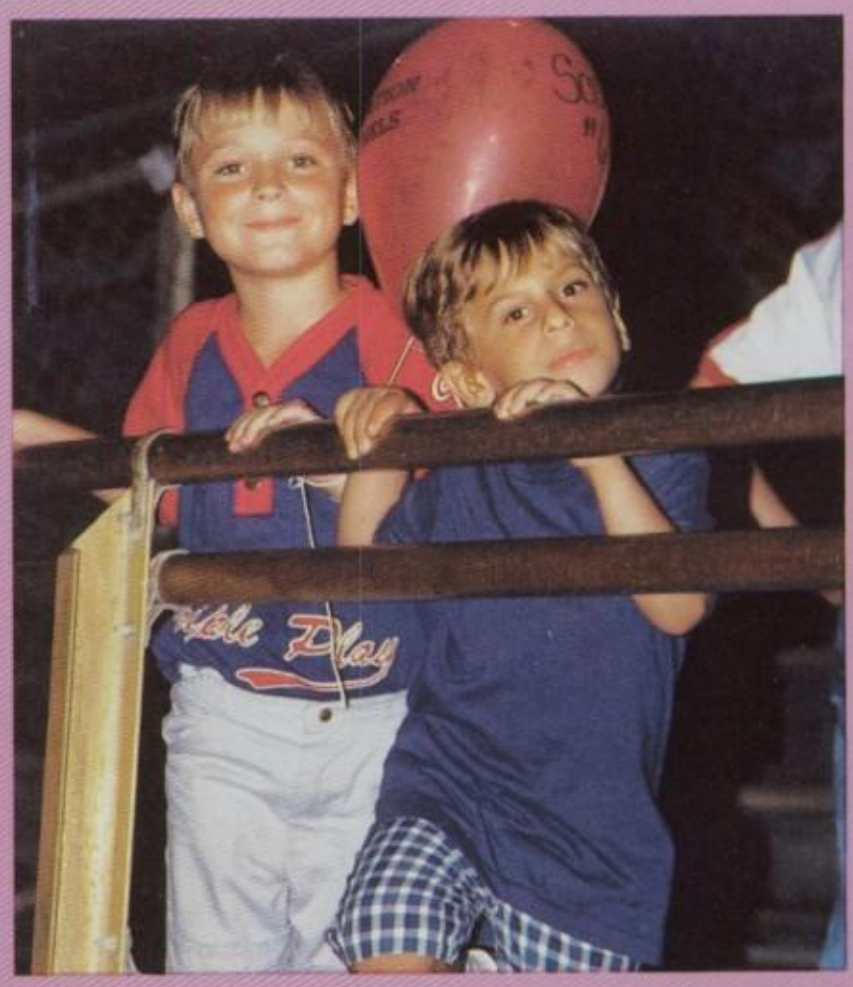
Brad Harner and Anna Chinn trying not to look too suspicious.

When Friday came there was no stopping the spirit of the Colonels. Everyone wore their red to show their pride in our football team. The walls shook with enthusiasm at the pep rallies. These are just some of the ways that P.H.S. proved to be the best fans in the district, by never giving up on the Colonels, no matter what the score. Colonels always had a larger crowd at away games then the home team did. Cheering the Colonels on up until the last seconds of the game showed our opponents what we were made of. The biggest example of school spirit was before the game against our rival school, South Plantation. That day most everyone in the school wore their "Beat South" red shirts. Many Colonel fans painted their hair and faces with red and white paint to show South how much the Colonels meant to them.



Future PHS colonels enjoy the football game.

The Fighting Colonels look up to Coach Hepler!

Yolanda McDowell . . . Not just a cheerleader!

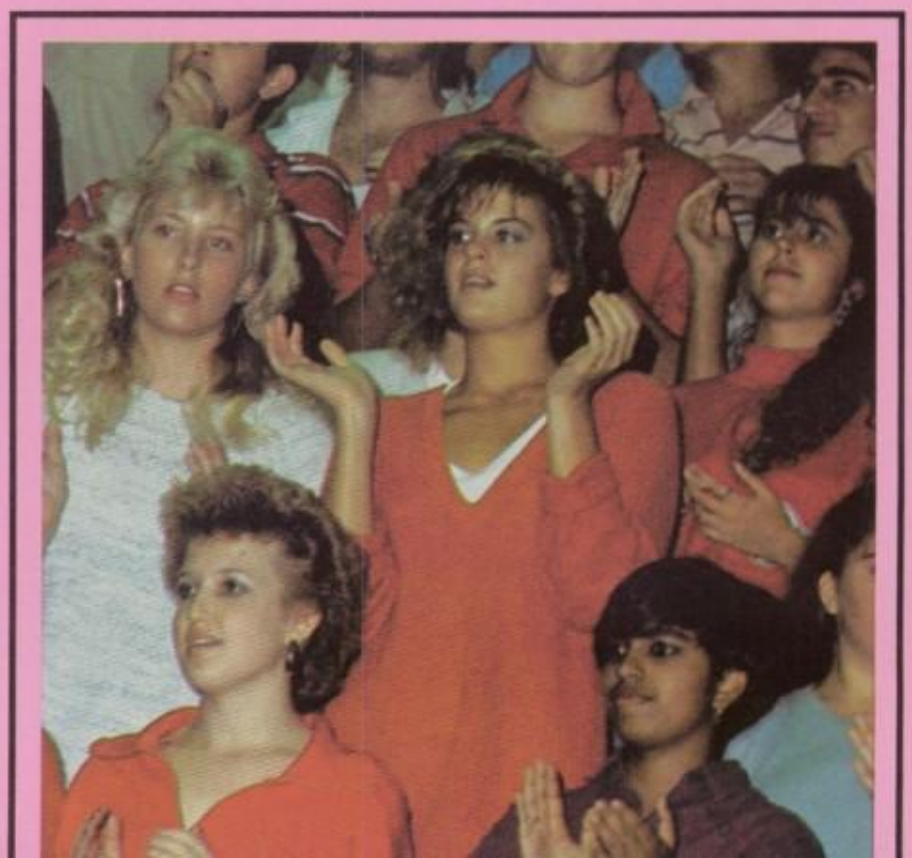
Sabrina, Heath, Chet, Brad and Jeff . . . Relaxing at Senior Beach Party.

Peter Goldman inquires, "Ever seen massive muscles like these?"

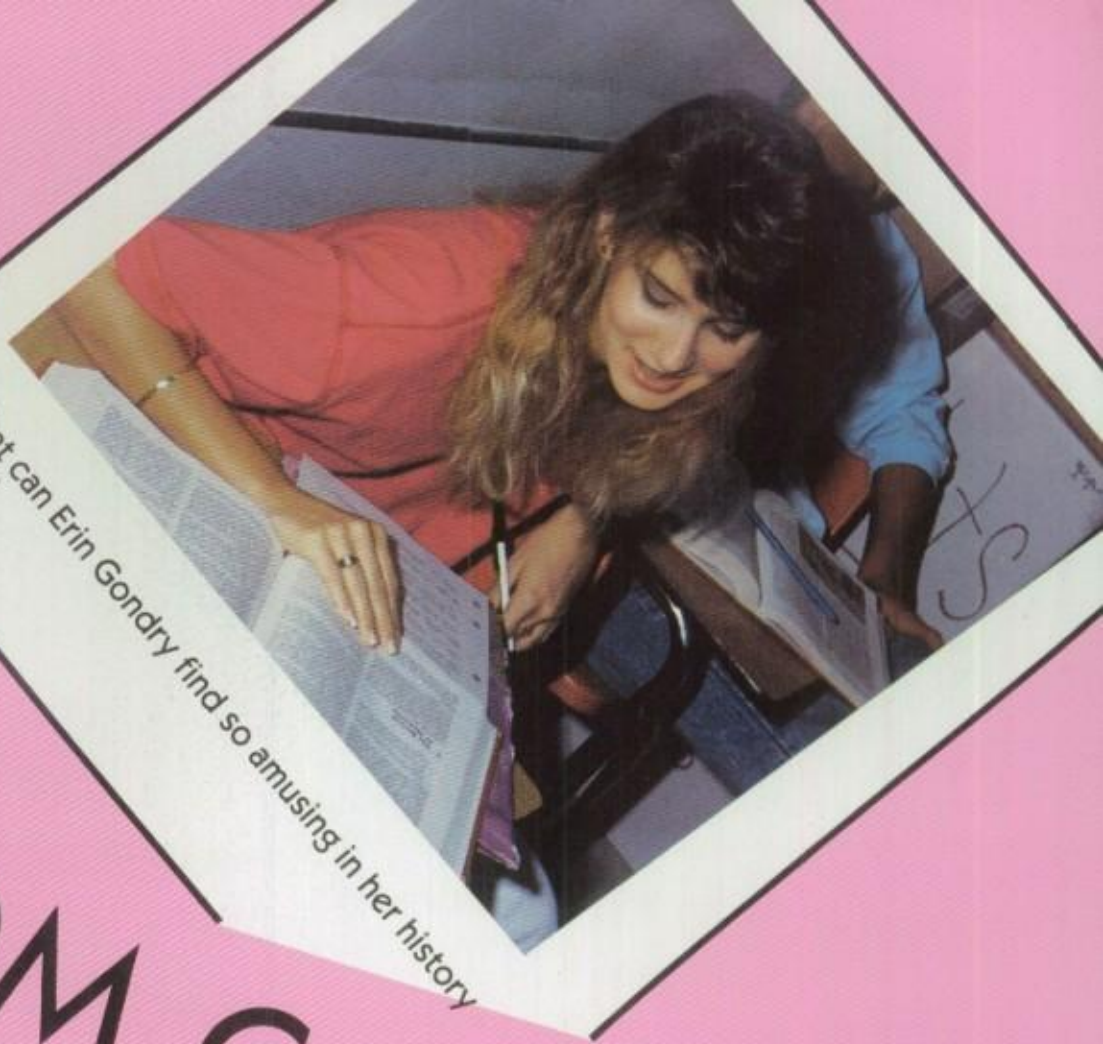
Debbie Potter gives her all for the senior class!!!

"We've got spirit, yes we do, we've got spirit, how about you?" This was a familiar cheer, heard at every PHS pep rally and football game, and one guaranteed to get the PHS students attention, when it is yelled from across the football field from the opposing team! Plantation students, clad in various articles of red and white, use this cheer to urge their Plantation Colonels to victory. This is just one example of school spirit. Many others were expressed at class competitions, insanity games, there was "Wacky Wednesday" when everyone wore their clothes inside out, and the pumpkin carvings done at Halloween, holiday hall decorating and door decorating. School spirit glows in the faces of the students at the annual Christmas Tree sale. It also shines in the eyes of the students at "Beat South Day" and "Spring Week". The band marched through the halls and gave every one an opportunity to hear their school spirit. Weekly trivia contests gave anyone who wanted a chance to participate. As freshmen enter Plantation High School, they learn about spirit from the upper classmen, this is practiced daily. It is this spirit that makes Plantation High School the great school that it is.

Sabrina Carauna and her escort think PHS is #1!



CLASSROOM CANDIDS

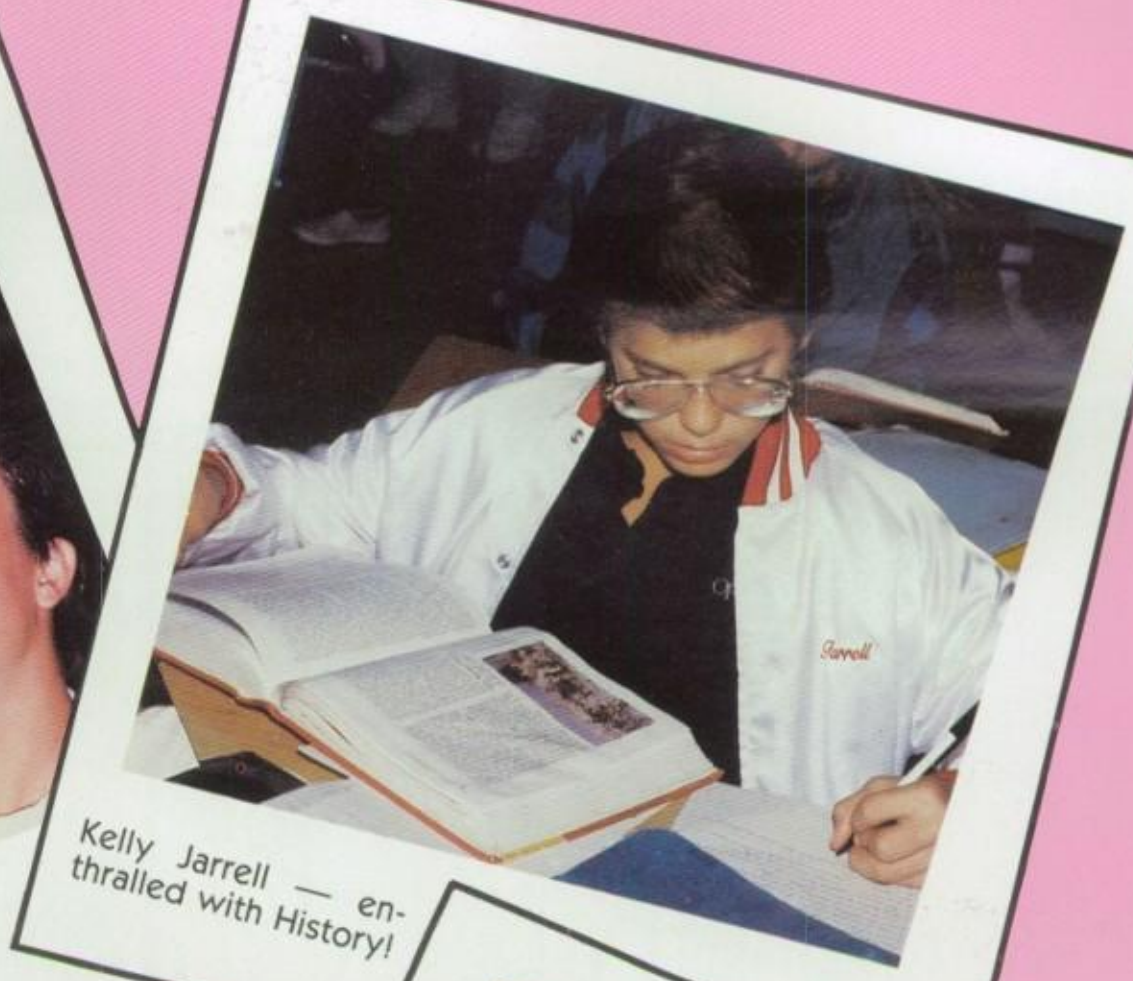


What can Erin Gondry find so amusing in her history book?

There were many ways in which PHS students passed their time in the classroom . . . a good portion of it was surprisingly, spent on school work! There were those instances, of course, when students did other things, such as doodled, daydreamed, wrote notes to their friends, and pretended to pay attention. Some students spent their time productively, anxious to learn everything they could about the subject taught while some spent their time trying to get the teacher off the subject at hand. A look into the classrooms of PHS showed some very studious people!

"Hey, Mr. P. . . . how about you in the hot seat next?"

Don Lipps — are you SURE??



Kelly Jarrell — enthralled with History!

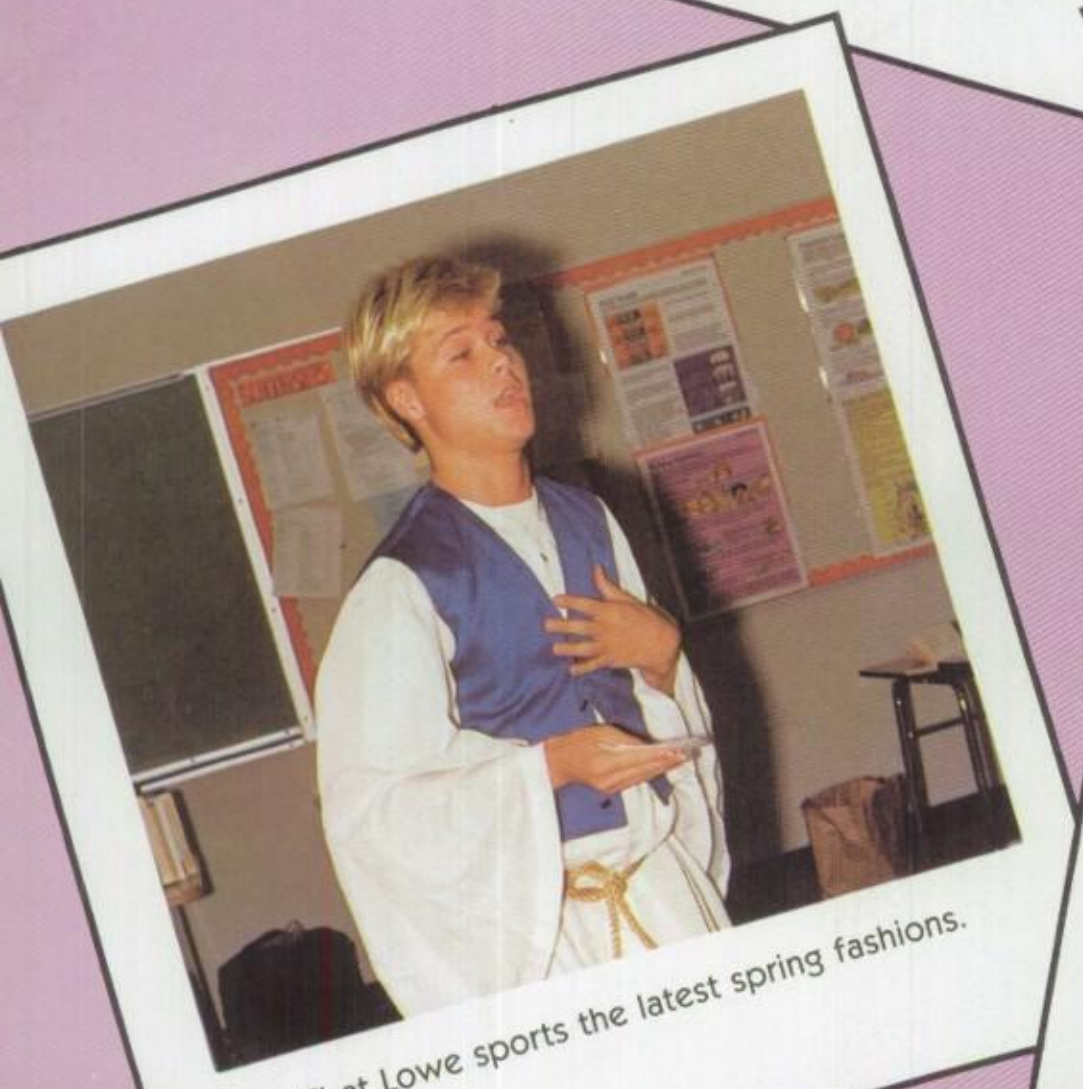
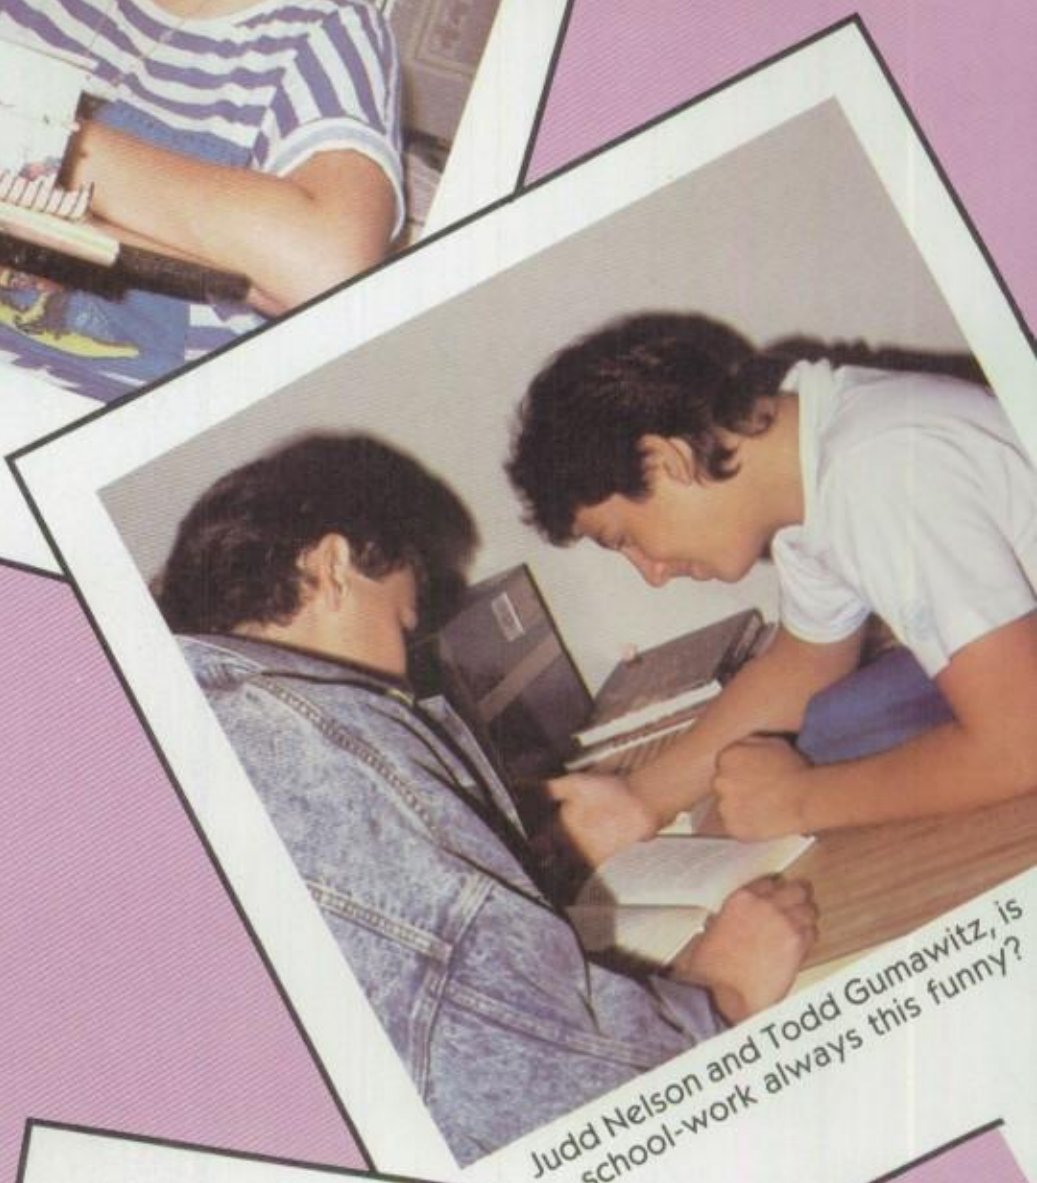
David Kanafani — wake up, the bell just rang!

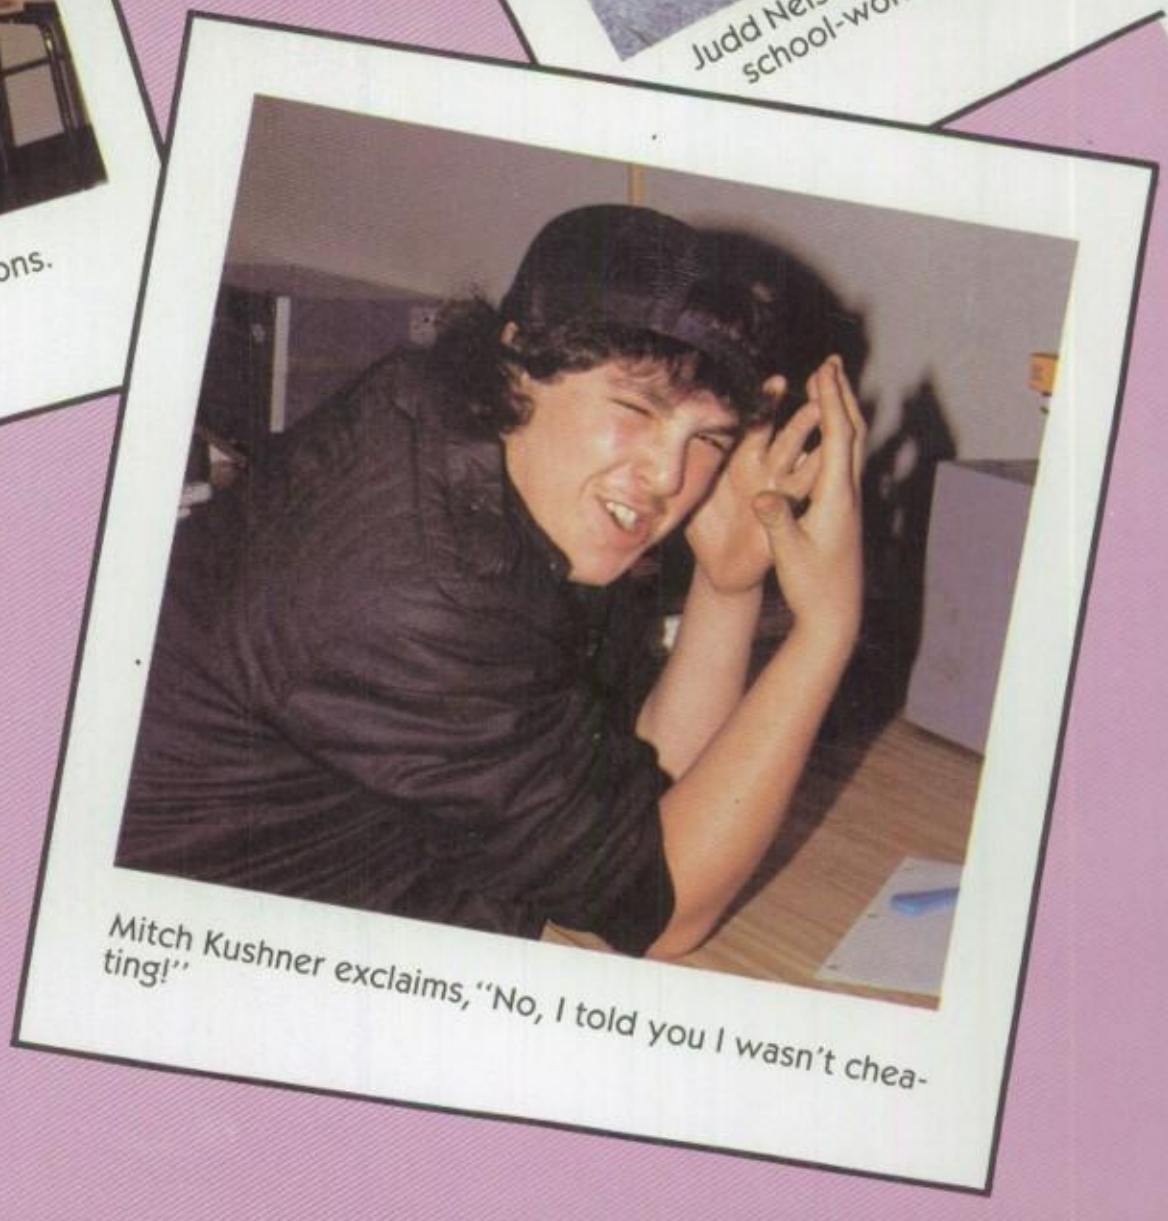
Melissa Goldberg caught in a trance.



Chet Lowe sports the latest spring fashions.

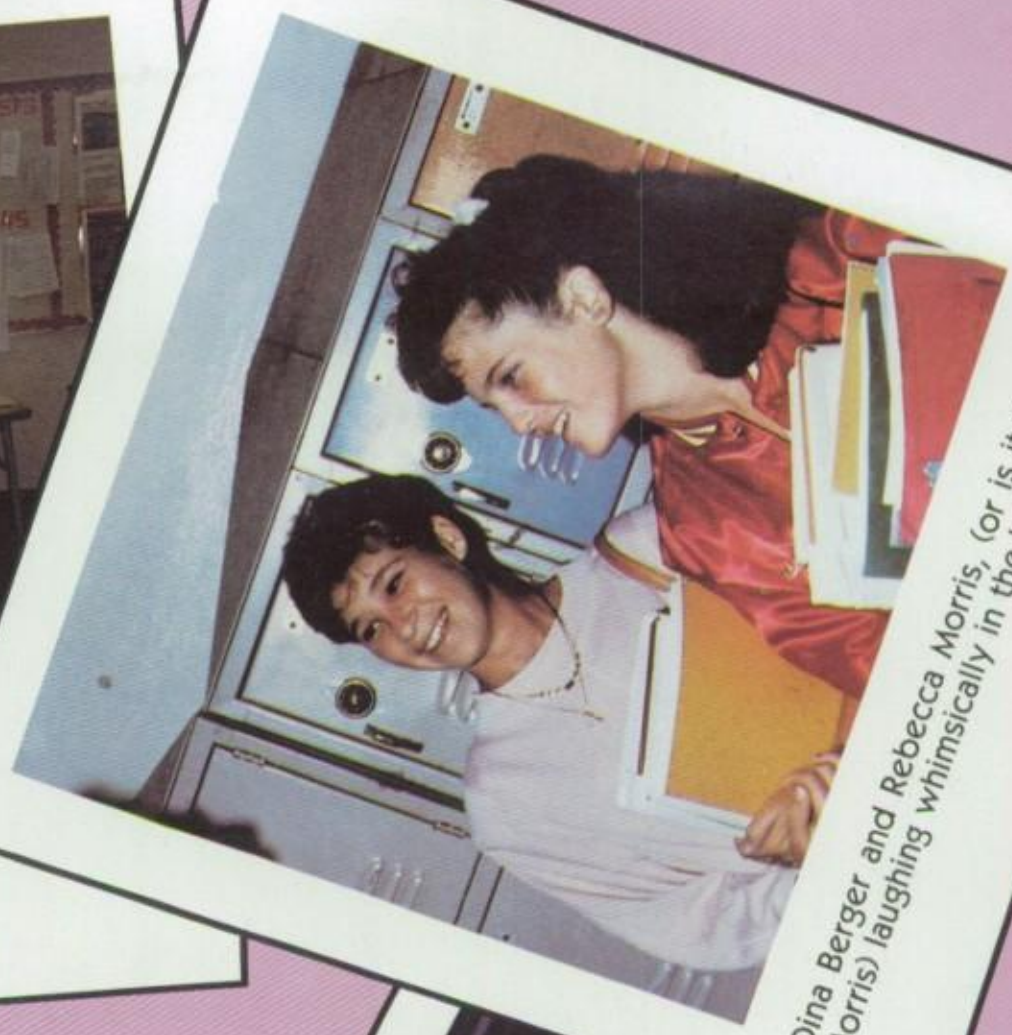


Judd Nelson and Todd Gumawitz, is school-work always this funny?



Mitch Kushner exclaims, "No, I told you I wasn't cheating!"

Jana Engle portrays Beauty in the play "Everyman".



Dina Berger and Rebecca Morris, (or is it Deborah Morris) laughing whimsically in the hall.

Lisa Simonovich comtimplates, "Gee this class is a real thrill."

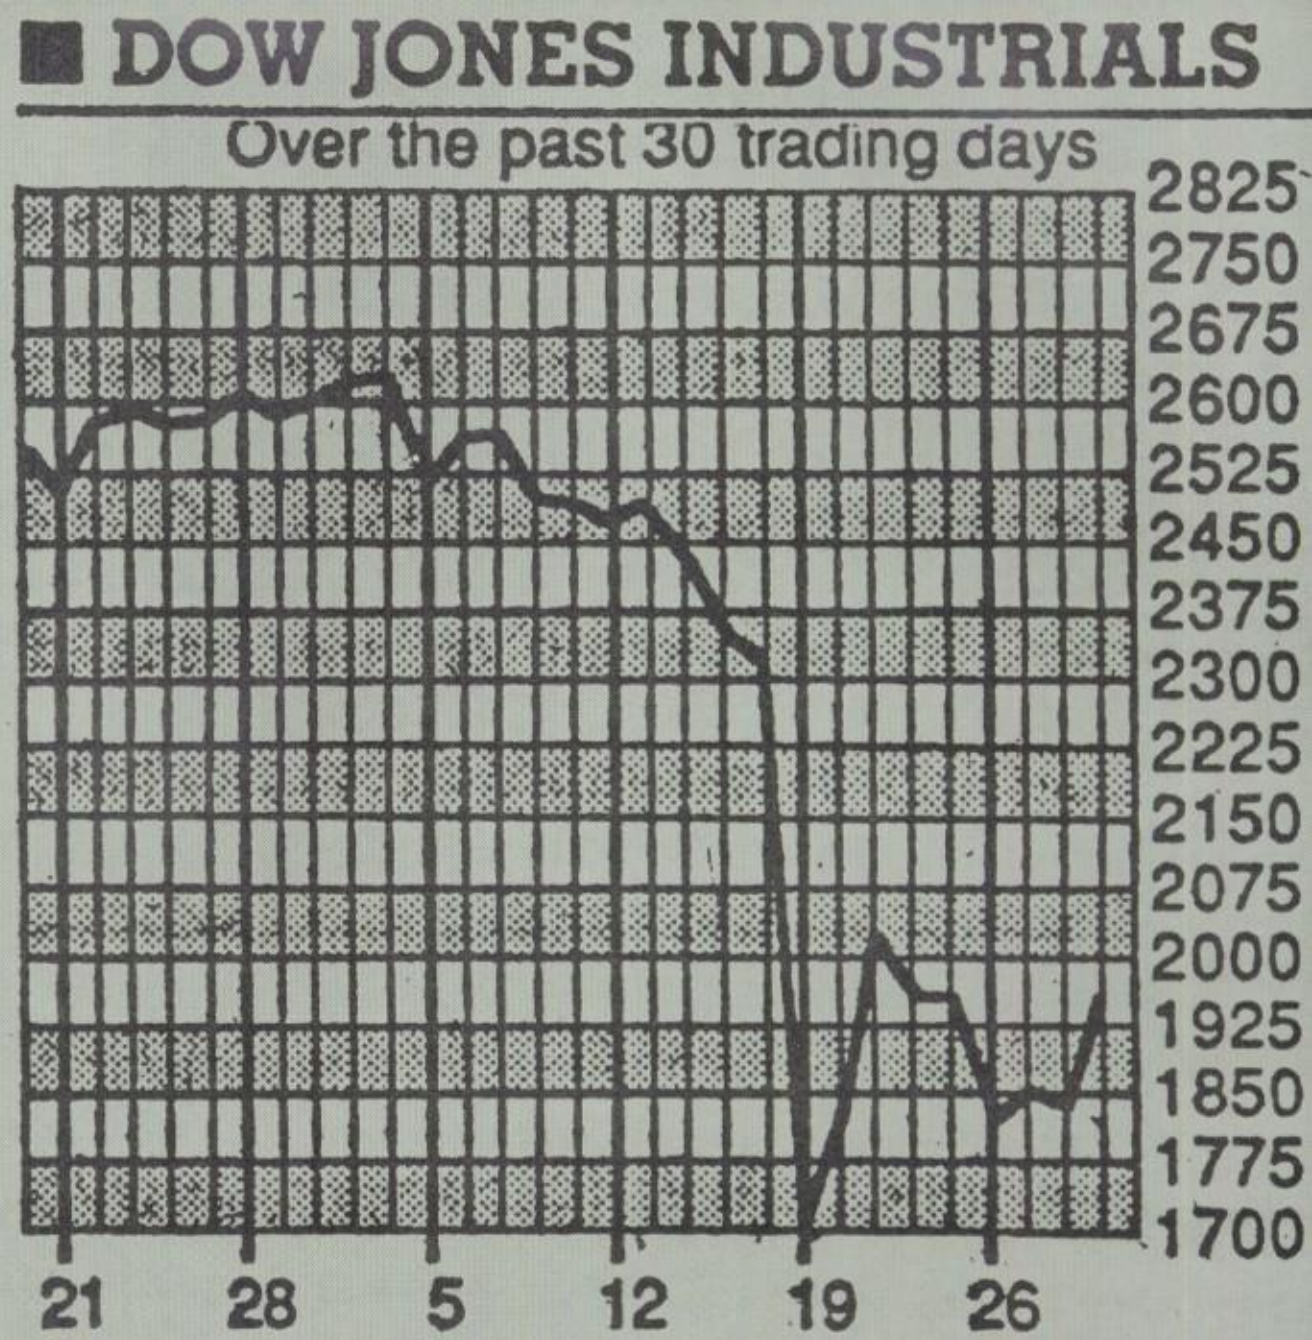
Stock Market Crashes!

Black Monday! October 19, 1987. The Stock Market dropped 508 points in one day! Investors in the market sustained severe losses, and there was concern there might be a recession in America. The next day it appeared it would snap back, until the end of the trading day when the Dow dived more than 57 points, and then, the following day, the rout continued! The market index had fallen a record 108 points. Stockholders wailed while computers hummed so fast that mere mortals were left all but helpless. Shock waves were felt around the world. The headlines of newspapers and news magazines reflected the seriousness of the situation. The next day we read - "Stocks Plunge 508.32 Amid Panicky Selling", in the WALL STREET JOURNAL. "Crash" is how THE SUN titled it on the same day, and "Stocks Plunge 508 Points, A Drop of 22.6%, 604 Million Volume Nearly Doubles Record", read the NEW YORK TIMES banner. Two weeks later, on November 2, 1987, TIME magazine's front page flashed "Panic Grips the World". Much has been made of the volatile condition of the market, and some steps have been taken to hopefully prevent a reoccurrence, but it appears there is still much to be done before it is really safe for the faint-hearted to venture into the market again!



"Black Monday" and stockholders went crazy trying to keep up with the market!

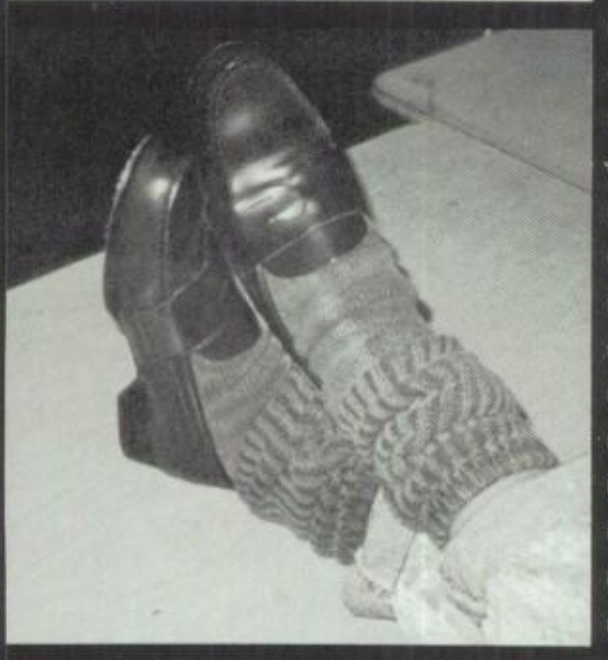
Pope Paul prayed for justice and peace for all at Tamiami Park.

The Papal Visit

A historic visit to Miami, by Pope John Paul II, turned what was a hot, humid day, into a beautiful,memorable Thursday, September 10th! Almost 200,000 spectators lined Biscayne Boulevard awaiting a chance to catch a glimpse of the Pope. Flags from many countries were being waved and children sat on parents shoulders, holding balloons to wave when the Pope arrived. And arrive he did, with the cheers of the crowds echoing down the boulevard! Another 250,000 waited in the hot sun at Tamiami Park, hoping to receive a blessing from the Pope. People had been anticipating this Papal Visit for months, with planning and preparation at a frenzied pace, all was finally readied. During the Pope's address to the crowd, a light rain turned into a torrential downpour with severe lightning and the Pope's speech had to be cut short. Even this did not dampen the spirit of the people. Those who were fortunate enough to have attend agreed that standing in the sun or being soaked by the rain were minor inconveniences when compared with the chance to see the Pope.

Fads -n- Fashions



From the very first day of school, right up to the present time, many fads and fashions have been highly visible at Plantation High School. There was a vast array of different types of popular items making up the 1987-88 fashion scene, including, but not limited to, colored Keds, blasted denim and thick EG socks. GUESS fashions were back this year with everything from clothes to watches. ID# and GENERRA were also on the "must have" list. There were leather jackets, boots and big hip hugging belts, along with mini-skirts, and jeans with holes (even though they weren't authorized apparel). Not only were the girls style conscious, but the guys as well were dressing very fashionably as well. Tie-dye was very stylish for both sexes. The hottest colors were black and white, with both colors being used singularly, and in combination, and in all kinds of patterns, styles and shapes. Of course, the ever popular REEBOK sneakers for guys and girls also remained in style. Just by walking down the halls, anyone could recognize that P.H.S. students know how to make a "fashion statement"!

Beat South

The words were "Beat South" and the colors were red and white. It was the day of the game against our arch-rival South Plantation, excitement was in the air! Almost every student was clad in red in white, with many of them wearing the red t-shirts, imprinted with Beat South, which had been sold by the P.H.S. Booster Club. Throughout the week, tension had been building, and finally, the big day was at hand! Near the end of the school day, the band and cheerleaders marched through the corridors; fight songs echoed down the halls, the sounds of marching feet reverberated against the walls, and the voices of the cheerleaders resounded, bringing the anticipation to a fever pitch! The spirit spread through the school to students and faculty alike, everybody was psyched up for the game! By the time the game started the stands were filled with a sea of red and white, all cheering loudly for their team. Although the spectators were disappointed that the Colonels didn't win, all agreed that it was a great game. They also said the preparations for the game were fun, had brought the school together in a common bond, had promoted school spirit, and finally.. "WAIT TIL NEXT YEAR!"

P.H.S. students wondered what the Colonels vs. Paladins outcome would be?

Excitement and anticipation rose as the Marching Colonels marched through the hal of Plantation High, playing fight songs, on the day of the game!

Some P.H.S. students took a rest before the game and dreamed of a victory over arch rival, South Plantation!

That was Then . . .

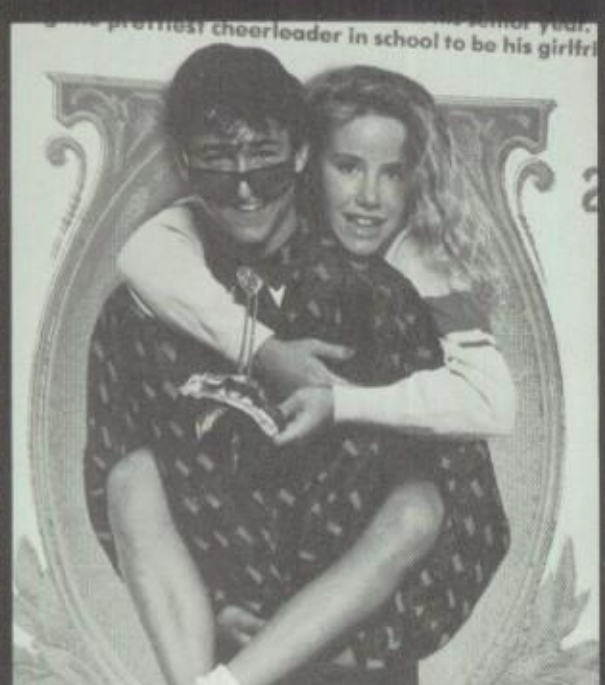
Changing Times

The New Grading Scale:

94-100=A		90-100=A
85- 93=B		80- 89=B
75- 84=C	vs.	70- 79=C
65- 74=D		60- 69=D
0- 64=F		0- 59=F

During last year's session, the Florida State Legislature established a "uniform grading scale" to be implemented on a statewide basis. In Broward County it was felt that the only "fair" way of doing this would be to make the grading uniform for all high school grade levels. Many students were unhappy with the new system, particularly those in the middle of their high school careers. Some said had they known of the impending change they would have chosen different courses in the past, particularly those who were college bound. Teachers generally felt the system was fair, and that students will work harder to achieve their goals. One area of major concern was the drop out rate. Would the new scale force some students who were "hanging on" out of school? Only time will tell, but it appears the system is here to stay, whether we like it or not.

"That's Entertainment"



This was a tremendous year for television and movies! On the small screen, the COSBY show continued its amazing success. Cops and detective shows were on all channels, and we had lawyers and doctors, along with evening "soaps". OUR HOUSE brought back the warm-hearted family type program which had been missing for several years. On the big screen we were treated to some block-buster movies. FATAL ATTRACTION, a horror/love story, shocked and intrigued viewers, while EDDIE MURPHY: RAW, kept them laughing. DIRTY DANCING revived the fast-paced love/dance musical and THREE MEN AND A BABY provided a lesson while entertaining. All in all, a very exciting year!

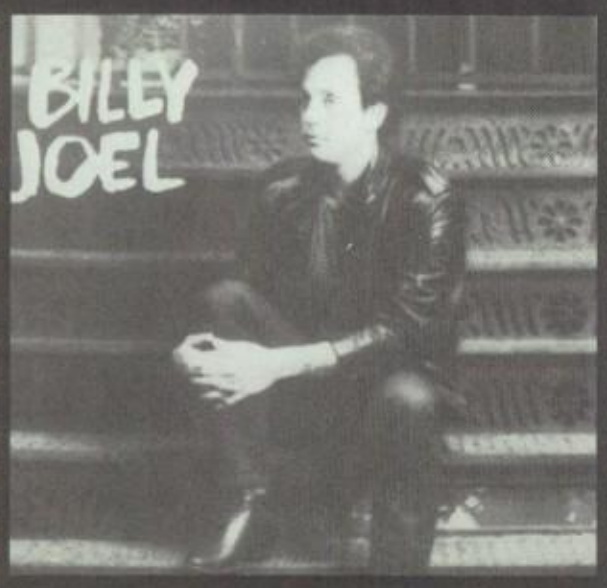
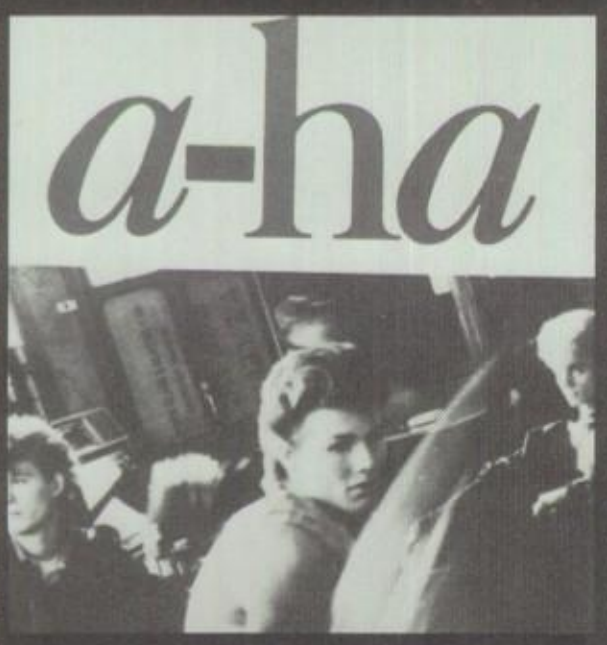
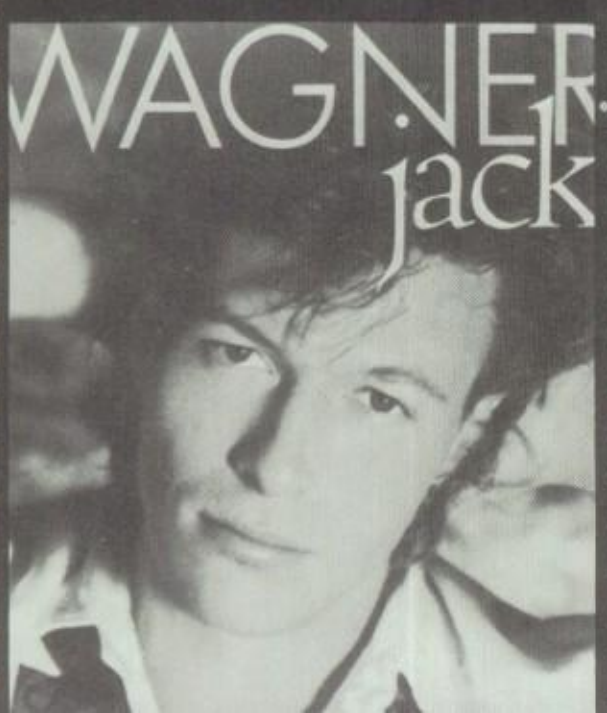
Chicago 17







1987-'88 was a great one for new music and new artists! Power 96, Hot 105, 97GTR, Y-100 and WEDR were the most listened to radio stations for the year. Some of the more popular music stars this year, surprisingly enough, were under the age of 20. Tiffany, only 16, made it big with "I Think We're Alone Now" and "Could Have Been". Debbie Gibson, age 18, had a hit entitled "Shake Your Love". Belinda Carlisle did very well when she introduced a new song "I Get Weak", in January, '88. "Heaven on Earth" and "Mad About You", were very popular too. U2 came back strong and climbed to the top again, and gave everyone here in South Florida an opportunity to see and hear them when they performed in the Orange Bowl. Here in Broward County, the most people ever to attend a concert at the Sportatorium were treated to the heavy metal sounds of Def Leppard. In addition, Heart, Whitney Houston, INXS, and Motley Crue "packed them in" at the same location!

The three top albums for the year were:

1. Bon Jovi - "Slippery When Wet"
2. Michael Jackson - "Bad"
3. U2 - "The Joshua Tree"

Not only do they provide service to the community by their various endeavors, but they also provide an opportunity for the members to develop strong, lasting friendships. Anchor Club members were frequent visitors to the Manor Care Center, just across the street from the school. There they chatted with the residents about subjects of interest to them, which tends to cheer the residents, had birthday parties, with cards, balloons, etc., and in general, helped to make the time spent there a little more enjoyable for the elderly patients who stay there. In addition, the club participated in montly "Teacher Appreciation Days", and their president, Michelle Burrows attended the Freedom Foundation's Citizenship and Government Studies Conference. This year's advisor was Mrs. Kirkwood, and the officers for Anchor Club included President - Michelle Burrows, Vice president - Deena Folic, Chaplain - Julie Weidner, Secretary - Gwen Svoboda, Treasurer - Jeanne Campbell, - Historian - Amy Bontrager, and Sergeant at Arms - Rebecca Morris. The features staff gave us information on a wide variety of interesting subjects, while the entertainment staff reviewed the current entertainment scene, giving enough of the details to aid students in making informed selections. The editorials provided P.H.S. students with some "food for thought" and the sports section recapped the results of all of the sporting action, allowing everyone a chance to experience the excitement a second time around! The advisor for 1987-88 was Mr. Richardson and the staff included Editor- Micki Nielsen, Sports- Jennifer Griffin, Features- Beth Kriegel, Entertainment- Jeremy Schwartz, News- Scott Hiassen, Editorial- Angela Vaughn, and Business Manager- Stacie Levine.

The members learn about the dangers of driving while under the influence of alcohol and strive to inform their fellow students. S.A.D.D. posters and banners warning against drinking and driving were displayed around the school in an effort to get the message across to everyone. In addition, they presented "Scared Sober". Drama Club

The Drama Club attracts those students who feel they possess a sense of the dramatic, or are comedians, can sing or dance, or otherwise perform upon the stage. In Drama Club they have the opportunity to discover new talents and polish old ones while they entertain others. Drama Club also gives those students interested in working behind the scenes, building sets, marketing the play, etc, a chance to do so. This year's Drama Club advisor was Mr. Kinder, who directed and encouraged potential "stars" as they presented the senior musical "Carousel", the play "Fools" and the Traveling Children's play.The officers were President- Robert Selvaggi, Vice president- Nancy Cramer, Secretary- Kurt Varrichio, and the Treasurer was Ann Mule.

NATIONAL HONOR

The Social Studies Honor Society started only two years ago at P.H.S. Before becoming a member a student must have maintained a 3.5 gpa over two years of social studies work and must have a 3.0 gpa in all other classes. The society promotes and encourages the student's interest in various areas of social studies and provides a scholarship for one of the senior members each year. Some of this year's members represented P.H.S. in Mock Trial competition. In this competition, many schools compete against one another in a realistic but staged courtroom situation. P.H.S. placed first in the competition. The Honor Society's main fundraiser this year was a poster sale and proved highly successful. The officers for 1987-88 were President- Leigh Raper, Vice president- Don Rolfe, Treasurer- Jeff Resnik, and Secretary- Miriam Bofshever. The advisor for the Honor Society was Mrs. Tschirret.

Members are taught how to properly use a telescope to view the different facets of the galaxy. This year's club discovered a great way to combine learning and fun. They held "star parties", combining learning by observing the stars and making it fun by having a party! Their advisor was Mr. Ruston and the 1987-88 Astronomy Club officers included President- Doreen Timmes and Vice president- Evan Gross.

Mrs. Preston asks, "What did you do to it?"

Future Business Leaders of America is one of the vocational clubs at Plantation High School. Better known as F.B.L.A., this group provides its members with insight into how a successful and productive business is operated. It also allows club members an opportunity to increase their knowledge of business activities within the local business community. At Plantation High School, each member must be nominated for his outstanding work either as a staff member of the newspaper or yearbook. Nomination is made by the advisor; this year they were made by Miss Bond and Mr. Richardson. Being inducted into Quill and Scroll is an honor; it rewards those students who have exhibited unusual interest, dedication and aptitude for journalism during the preceding year. Ultimately, the goal is to encourage those students to continue their work in the journalism field, and perhaps seek a career in the same area.

Even the students who were unable to travel abroad could learn more about customs and educational expectations in other countries. The three students were Millie Von Glehn, from Switzerland, Stefan Schmitz from Germany, and Marco Frascetti from Italy.

Bump It!

This year the Volleyball team did themselves, their coaches and P.H.S. proud! Each game we observed real teamwork as well as great individual effort. The final outcome? DISTRICT CHAMPS - 13-4A! A winning season of 21-11. It was a season of sweet success and proof positive that hard work pays off. Last year Coach Payton had predicted a district title, and she was right. The many hours spent by both Coach Payton and Coach Hayes ended in elation with the title win. Two players, Krissy Tschirret and Helene Kon were named to All County, with Honorable Mention going to Jackie Bridges, Lynne Carey and Sheree Nelson. Dani Bridges was recognized as the Most Improved and Lynne Carey for a perfect game. Most Valuable Player was awarded to Helene Kon the 6ft.2in. senior. Will they do it again next year, we sure hope so!

J.V. Volleyball is the "training ground" for Varsity Volleyball. It gives young women who are interested an opportunity to learn and gain experience. Volleyball itself is a game of hard knocks, with bumps, spikes, getting set and serving! The players must have energy and lots of it, to keep up the pace. They must be willing to learn, to work hard and be dedicated. At P.H.S. the coaches, Ms. Payton and Ms. Hayes, have been able to field a varsity team of winners over a period of years, a direct outgrowth of the J.V. program. This year's J.V. team showed us just how good a young team can be as we watched them develop over the season, both mentally and athletically. The basic groundwork has been laid, the confidence of these players will increase as they join the varsity team and we can expect to see some outstanding players come out of the '87-'88 J.V. team. Look out in '88-'89!

The coaches, Walter Richardson and Garry Nelson did a great job with the girls' swim team of 1987. Joanne Scudney, who placed 4th in district and 7th in state for diving, and Dawn Armstrong, who placed 3rd in district for the 100 m butterfly, were major contributors to the teams victories. The season, which began in August, didn't end until October. Both swimming practice and home meets took place at the Central Park Pool. The team needed a lot of energy for the vigorous practices and hectic meets, but it paid off in the end as the team finished their season at 7 wins and only 2 losses!

The 1987 Boys Swim team was led to a 7-3 season by coaches Garry Nelson and Walter Richardson. Individual honors were awarded to Martin Urban, who placed 1st in district for the 100 m breaststroke and 2nd in district for the 200 m freestyle, and to George Kossenko, who placed 2nd in districts for the 500 m freestyle. The high point of the season occurred when the boys' relay team; Munir Gea Gea, Chris Dupilka, Martin Urban, George Kossenko, and alternate Pete Fuedo, represented Plantation High at the state championships.

Unsung Heroines

They are the few, they are the proud, they are the Plantation High School trainers. These ladies are rarely recognized for their hard work on the sidelines during each football game. Their jobs included bandaging wounds on arms, fingers, legs, and hands, supplying much needed water and Gatorade to the exhausted football players, and keeping supplies handy just in case there were any injuries on the field.

Cross Country runners are by necessity, an elite cardiovascularly fit group. They spend many hours running, toning muscles, attempting to perfect their times. Although this season turned out to be a losing one, credit must be given to runners such as Mike Oates, David Green, Paul Rodriguez and Mike Rodriguez. Each of these individuals, along with their teammates, put great effort into winning their meets. This was the first year at P.H.S. for Coach Locke, with his able direction we look forward to building a running program equal to or better than similar programs in other area schools.

The background is just a blur as David Green dashes down the field!

The 1987-'88 Girl's Cross Country team was in the rebuilding stages. It was unfortunately not a successful season, mainly because of the lack of sufficient depth within the group. Under the direction of first year coach, Mr. Locke, the girls worked very hard during practice as well as on the competition field to build a successful team. Hopefully, many of the girls who turned out this year will participate again next year, thus giving the team the benefit of their experience. Members of the team included seniors Erica Bellamy, Vachon Broadneaxm and Staci Hellman. We look forward to a great year in '88-'89.

A "Pinning" Combination!

The Wrestlettes were probably the wrestling team's biggest boosters! They could be seen at the matches, leading the cheering for the Colonels as well as keeping score for the team. They also gave their support and encouragement by passing out drinks and snacks such as oranges at the matches. When it was time to clean everything up, they were right there, helping wherever needed. This year's Co-captains were Julie Brewer and Kim Fassanella. The Wrestlettes advisor for the year was Ms. Brennan.

The 1987-88 varsity wrestling team enjoyed another very successful season. The experience gained over the past seasons was evident in the matches, and helped get the team ready for district and state. Coach Joe Martin, who previously guided the J.V. team, took over as varsity coach this year and Steven Mendelson became the new J.V. coach. The Colonels team was led by Jeff Kalish, Ian Murray, Evan Goldman, Shannon Kidd, Alan Mintzer and Dana Sorensen. With another year of experience gained, Plantation High School can look forward to another year of great wrestling in 1988-89!

Varsity basketball cheerleaders have rhythm!

The basketball cheerleaders were a very important part of the excitement, spirit and fun of basketball games! Their enthusiasm spilled over, affecting everyone who attended the games. In addition, their "performances" added entertainment and helped ease that sense of tension that often develops in a close game. This year's basketball cheerleading teams were coached by Ms. Levendorf and Ms. Campbell. Debbie Potter was captain for the varsity cheerleaders and Rebecca Morris and Jeanie Campbell were the captains of the J.V. cheerleaders.

This year's girl's basketball team completed a very successful season under the guidance of Coach Snyder. The team's defensive members kept the opposing team's scoring opportunities to a minimum while the offense was scoring for P.H.S.! There were several outstanding plays made by Donna Royes, Shawanda McCullough, Sheree Nelson and Kristie Owen. The Lady Colonels began the year with a 2 point loss during a pre-season exhibition game against Stranahan. They participated in a Christmas tournament held at South Plantation, and won those games. Other than the pre-season game, their only losses came against Taravella, two during regular season play, and the disappointing loss during district playoffs. The final overall score for the year was 20-4, the best record for Plantation High in 10 years. This year's team had much to be proud of!

This was a great year for the P.H.S. girls' soccer team as they started the year off with a first time ever win over Coral Springs! After that victory the team faced many formidable opponents. The defense was very strong this year, and they managed to hold the opposing teams to just 20 goals, while the P.H.S. offense was scoring 50 goals. Members Jami Thompkins, Jenny Smith and Millie Von Glehn, along with Ellen Featherston, Sarah McCarthy and Heidi Thomas showed their opponents just how well P.H.S. "teamwork" works! Ian Simpson heads the ball for the Colonels!

The 1987-88 boys' soccer team, under the direction of Coach Lippert, faced some stiff competition this year. Having moved up from district 3A to district 4A, they were faced with some of the toughest teams in the county. In addition, they were plagued with injuries throughout the season. The end result was a somewhat less than satisfactory season, although as the season neared the end, the team began to come on stronger. Captain, Eric Bunin proved to be a good leader, and two newcomers to Plantation High, Stefan Schmitz and goalie Frank Mercogliano proved to be extremely helpful. Although several of the team members are graduating this year, there are some very talented young players remaining. Now that those players have gained experience in the new district we look forward to next year, anticipating a more successful season. This year's overall record was 3-9-2.

Mr. James Vanover was an administrator at Plantation High School for five years. He had an exciting career opportunity to become a principal and is presently interning at Mc Nicole and Deerfield Middle Schools. He felt great remorse about leaving, but said that he learned a lot at Plantation High. Mr. Vanover has many favorable memories of our school, including when he participated in his daughter Stephanie's graduation. He was very school oriented and enjoyed being involved in school sponsered activities. He will be missed greatly here, but we wish him well.

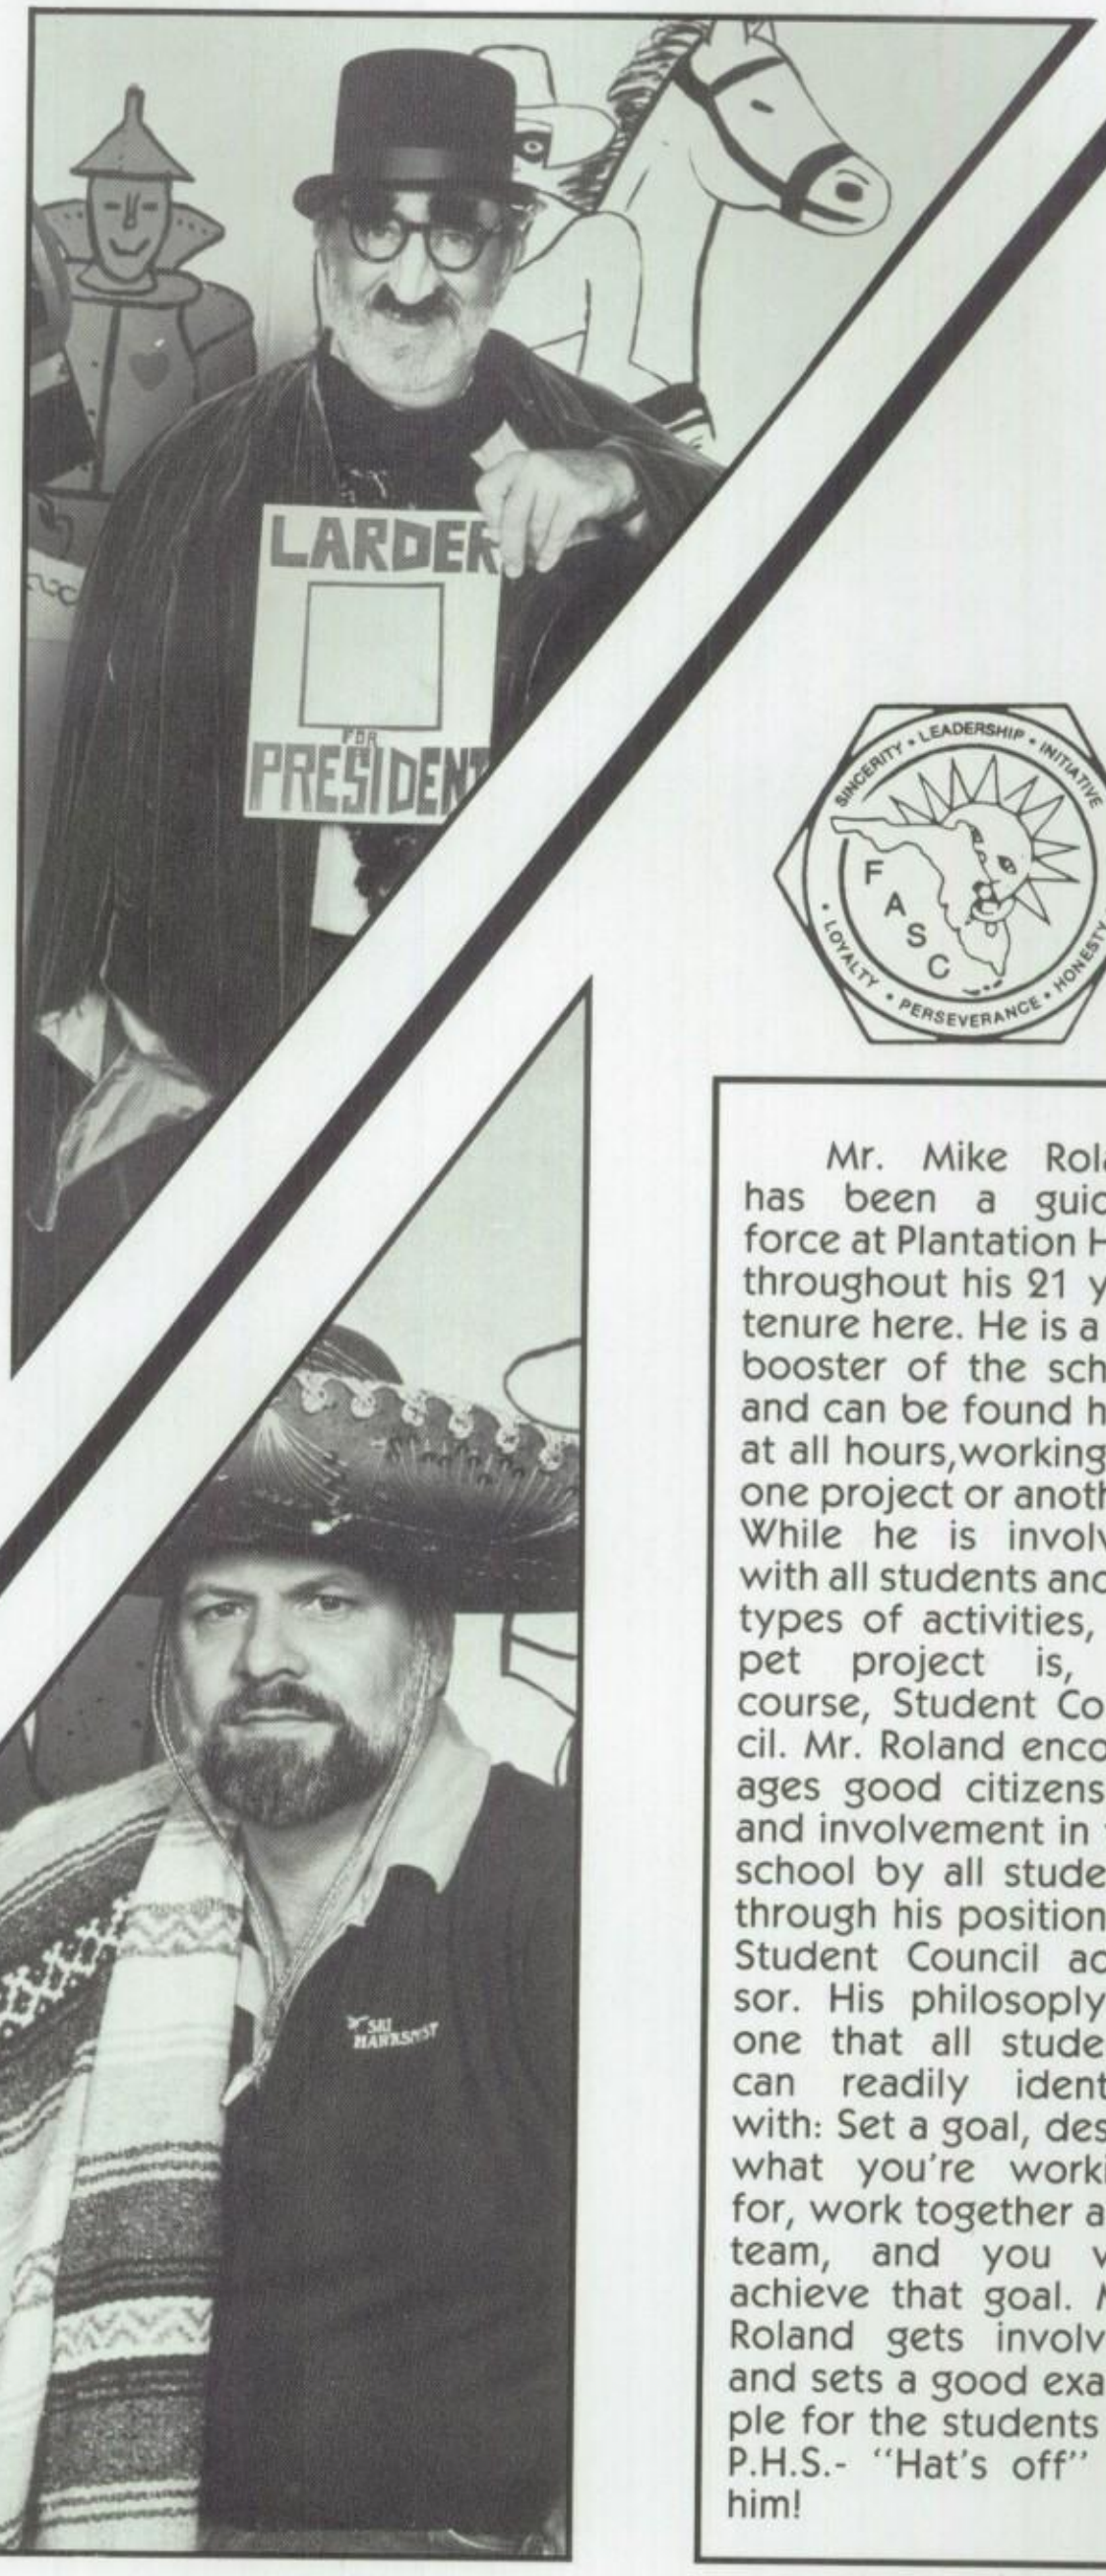
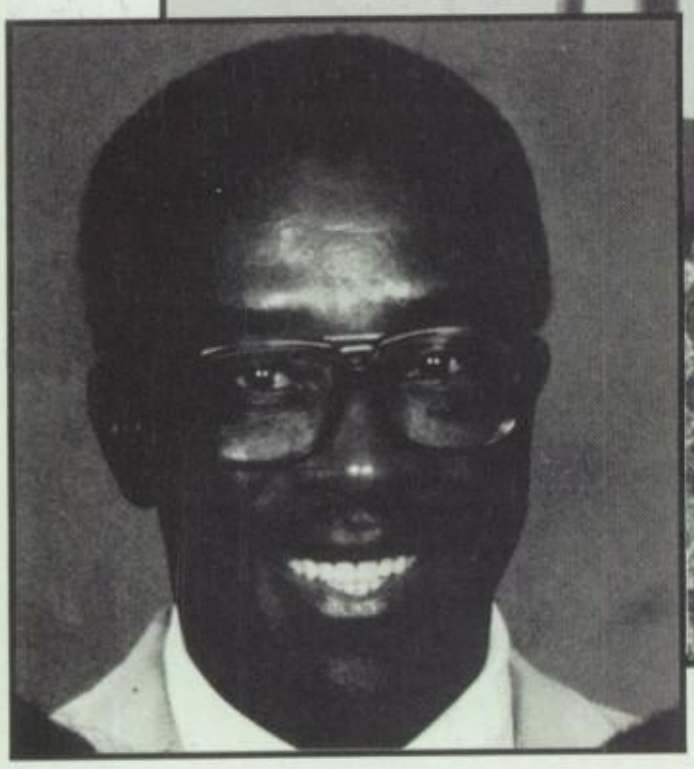
Mr. Ron Larder has been teaching at Plantation High since 1973. In that same year he assumed the role of senior class advisor and has continued to do so each year since then. Students, especially seniors, rely on Mr. Larder for his advice and direction. They know that he is ready with encouraging words, is able to put college worries and other "senior" concerns in proper perspective and they recognize that he is willing to help and will listen with a positive attitude. He attributes this understanding attitude to the fact that he reared 5 children of his own and is familiar with the stresses and problems of young people. In the classroom he invites his students to learn, thereby causing them to expend the extra energy to accomplish their assignments. Because of his somewhat liberal outlook, some students began a movement to draft Mr. Larder for President this year, and signs attesting to this were displayed around the school. To Mr. Larder, we say, thanks for being there and thanks for caring!



Mr. Mike Roland has been a guiding force at Plantation High throughout his 21 year tenure here. He is a big booster of the school and can be found here at all hours,working on one project or another. While he is involved with all students and all types of activities, his pet project is, of course, Student Council. Mr. Roland encourages good citizenship and involvement in the school by all students through his position as Student Council advisor. His philosoply is one that all students can readily identify with: Set a goal, desire what you're working for, work together as a team, and you will achieve that goal. Mr. Roland gets involved and sets a good example for the students of P.H.S.- "Hat's off" to him!



Mr. Samuel Sworn has been at P.H.S. for 15 years. He enjoyed several years of teaching in Broward County before becoming an administrator. Even though his job as Assistant Principal can sometimes be difficult, he says he looks forward to his day at P.H.S., and feels that his work here helps keep him energetic, as he deals daily with active young people. His credo: "Don't let anyone make you angry". We appreciate his positive attitude!

Developing more than land.

New jobs. Better schools. Increased property tax base. Greater retail sales activity. Improved municipal services. What do all of these benefits have in common? All are results of development by Gulfstream in a local community.

Gulfstream is one of Florida's largest holders of urban land approved for development. But we develop more than land. By working closely with officials of state, county and city governments, we bring growth to an area through major projects. Gulfstream's success stems from meeting the needs of local communities. Whatever they may be.

Four years ago we met as freshmen
And ever since then our friendship has grown stronger and stronger.

Through the years we have shared each other's problems
And have helped each other through both the good and bad.

Always sharing and confiding in one another
We are each other's most special high school memory.

And forever . . . best friends.

Michela and Laura

Fellowship
Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love.
The Fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

We share each other's woes,
Each other's burdens bear,
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When we are called to part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

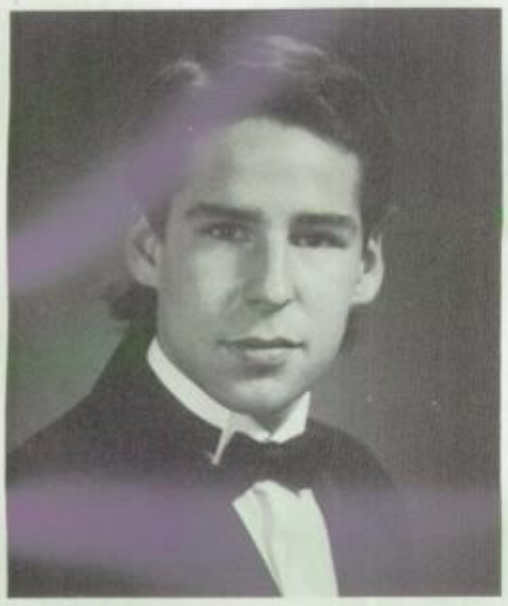
P.S. Daddy would be so proud.

Here we are almost on our own,
Since we met we all have grown.
Lifetime friendships, undying trust,
To keep in touch, is a must!
Preschool days of fingerpainting,
With no worries, always playing.
Different classes at Mirror Lake
Showing feelings, never fake.
Then we went to Middle School
We wished for freedom, no more rules.
Three years later at Plantation High,
Still our friendships never die.
Our senior year came so fast
Seven school years already past
Special times and special talks
Many bike rides, many walks
Birthday parties, softball games
Ice cream cones, forgotten names
Confirmation and band trips
Forgotten guys and chicken lips!
Someone there listening to dreams
Looking inside, not at the seams
Either laughing or crying, sick or sad
We've been together through good and bad
Up and coming is graduation
Just another growing situation
So many things we've had to face
Life has its very own pace
On to college we will go
Looking back has helped us grow
So if we're ever really down
Memories can change that frown
Without looking too hard we'll see
How special a pre-school buddy can be.



Eric,

Congratulations!

Best Wishes and . . .

Love,

Mom, Dad & Todd

Felicia,
If you receive just half the love, joy and happiness that you brought into our lives, your life will hold the greatest treasures on earth.

"Best Friends Forever!"

We've been through it all and come out okay;
Helped each other mature with every passing day
Can't say there was a time where no one was waiting to care;
Because with every problem and confusion,
Someone was always there.
It's simple and easy to define;
That our friendship is ever so fine.
We've lived our lives to the new start;
Completing the puzzle with all our different HEARTS.
From the start we learned everyone's good and bad;
And dealt with it even accepting those moments that were sad.
There were difficult scenes that we'd all like to forget;
But nothing we can erase, our past is set.
We will always remember parties and fun;
Our only concern was to be home at one.
To wake up for school, it was the total worst of all;
We couldn't wait to leave to go shopping at the mall.
Then of course came our boyfriends,
Who were life's challenging game;
Everyday things were different and nothing stayed the same.
To look back on it now it does scare us for those future days;
When we all graduate and go our separate ways.
But, deep down inside we can never forget;
WE'LL BE BEST FRIENDS FOREVER
SINCE THE DAY WE MET!!!

CONGRATULATIONS KAREN AND HEATHER
BUT WE WILL NEVER SAY GOODBYE!!!

To Cameron:
You strive to be a winner
In all that you do . . . .
No wonder I'm proud to be
Related to you!
Love,
Mom

Dear Jay,
Seems like yesterday, you were just a boy. The years have passed quickly and many things have changed.
During those years we've learned to respect and accept each other, as individuals, Each with his own feelings and ideas. With the passing of each year, we have always felt such pride, in all you've done and in all your future plans.
Remember, even though you are now grown and will soon spread your wings, you are always loved so very much.
All our love,
Dad, Mom and of course, Missy!

Dear Staff-

Someone once said that "Time flies when you're having fun." I would like to amend this quote by saying that time flies when you're working on a yearbook! When I became editor of Reflections '88, I never realized that time would pass so quickly. The year was filled with so many moments of excitement, frustration, happiness, and anger, it is difficult to believe that it has all come to a close.

This year has been wrapped up in the pages of this yearbook. The book is also evidence of the hard work and dedication that each staff member put into it. We had to deal with many problems and hardships during the course of the year, including missing rulers, triplicates, clip art books, and cropping pencils. As usual however, we pulled through, improvising and using our imaginations to get the job done.

Along with the troublesome times we faced, there were a few humorous moments as well, including- "No Michelle B., no proofs yet . . . ", "Robert O-Ker-On! . . . ", "Adam, clean this place up . . . ", "Hello? Reflections '88 . . . ", "Michelle S., you get the hose and I'll get the slip . . . ", and "Ok, who needs an ad?"

This year will be one that I will never forget. I will remember each of you because of the experiences that we have shared together.

Best wishes for the future,
Cathy Olive
